

iep online Translation™

Effortlessly translate special education documents into other languages with the click of a button.

Public Consulting Group's (PCG) IEP Online Translation is a cost-effective tool that empowers districts and schools to provide student documentation to parents in their native language.

Now teachers can instantly produce translated IEP documents for families in advance of, and immediately following IEP meetings.

Features

User-Friendly Functionality. Simply select the desired language and documents are translated into the selected language with a click of a button.

Extensive Language Library. Automatically translate documents into multiple languages.

Comprehensive Translation. All text within the document, including headings, data fields, and user-entered notes are translated into the selected language.

FERPA/HIPAA Compliant. IEP Online Translation meets FERPA/HIPAA requirements.

Translation Availability. Quickly print translated documents while records are being drafted and after completion.

Benefits

Cost Savings. IEP Online Translation produces fully translated documents at a fraction of the cost when compared with other translation services, saving districts significant amounts of money.

Fast Delivery. By automating IEP translations, IEP Online Translation reduces a document's turn-around time from weeks to seconds (compared to traditional translation services).

Encourages Meaningful Participation. IEP Online Translation creates a seamless translation process, providing parents the opportunity to actively engage in the development of their child's IEP in their native language—before, during, and after IEP meetings.

"Providing a copy of a student's IEP in the parent's native language helps them truly engage in their child's education and builds trust between the school and the family."

- Sowmya Kumar
Assistant Superintendent, Office of Special Education Services, Houston Independent School District
